

CALANTAS YOUNG DREAMERS FOUNDATION, INC. (CYDFI)

Calantas, Floridablanca, Pampanga, Philippines 2006
 (011-63-918) 424-7778 * (email) santa@cydf821philippines.com * www.cydf821philippines.com

Scholarship Program Contract
Between The Foundation (CYDFI) And The Recipient of Scholarship Grant

Nature of the Contract

Scholar ID#: _____

Calantas Young Dreamers Foundation, Inc. is a "Crusade Against Abject Poverty in the Philippine Rural Areas" by empowering indigent but deserving talented youths through a Scholarship Program Model with a methodology called SWREM Theory In Action that is designed to help them help themselves so they can help incoming scholars leading to breaking their cycle of poverty as they learn to become socially responsible. CYDFI Contract articulates a commitment imbedded in the methodology that Scholars shall have "to help, at least, one or two new college incoming scholars" from their respective communities when they become productive after their Secondary/College Education (unless they are qualified to pursue Graduate Education). Beyond fulfilling their initial commitment, youths shall join CYDFI voluntarily in its Crusade among the Nabuclod and other Aeta communities in the mountain range of Pampanga and Zambales provinces.

Responsibilities of Calantas Young Dreamers Foundation, Inc. (CYDFI)

- To facilitate much-needed financial resources for the Scholarship Recipients finish their education in the Phase 1: High School, Phase 2: College and/or Phase 3: Graduate School.
- Phase 1: High School Scholarship Grant covers the following benefits given each school year per Article 6, ss1.4, Table 2: Entrance Fee, books, authorized voluntary contribution, 2-3 sets of school uniforms, shoes, shirts, personal and transportation allowances and school supplies. (NOTE: Due to limited resources as yet, Phase 1 only guarantees initially to cover ONE Scholarship Recipient per year but extended from 2 to 5 recipients from the top 5 6th grade graduating students when resources are made available).
- Phase 2: College Scholarship Grant shall be awarded based on availability of resources. Benefits shall be negotiated with potential "sponsors" as to how far they are willing to "help" and "how far" the families of the scholars are capable of helping, too, financially.
- Phase 3: Graduate School Scholarship Grant shall be awarded to a college graduating CYDFI Scholar with honors (Summa, Magna, Cum).
- CEO/President of the Foundation shall monitor the Progress of the Scholars in the Scholarship Program and be guided by the Principles and Procedures articulated in the CYDFI Handbook as reflected in this Contract.

Responsibilities of Scholars in Phases 1 and 2 of the Scholarship Program Per CYDFI Handbook, Art.3, s2.

- ss2.1a. No grade below 80 in both academic and non-academic subjects to maintain an average grade of 80.
- ss2.1b. Maintain good behavior during the entire scholarship period. Meaning, no alcohol, tobacco and other dangerous drugs.
- ss2.1c. Engage in community service work in the respective communities of the scholars, i.e. Calantas Scholars in Calantas and Barrio Benedicto Scholars in Barrio Benedicto, with school children during summer breaks by creating activities to encourage social awareness and responsibility to self, others and community.
- ss2.1d. Phase 1 (Secondary) Scholars will meet with the CEO/President of the Foundation at least every after periodic grades are released for updates and evaluation of academic plans and submission of grades' copy.
- ss2.1e. Phases 2 (College) Scholars will meet with the CEO/President of the Foundation, at least, after semestral grades are released for updates and evaluation of academic plans and submission of grades' copy and communicate weekly via e-mail to CYDFI.
- ss2.1f. Lastly, all Phases 1 & 2 CYDFI Scholars, together with one of their respective parents/guardian and/or any adult family member, shall attend the Annual Board Meeting in Calantas.

Phase 3 Scholars (Graduate School) shall have to adhere to "Personal Accountability" as stipulated in Article 2, ss3.3c of the CYDFI Handbook and in addition, they shall have to meet with the CEO/President of the Foundation for updates and evaluation of academic plans during semestral breaks and attend Annual Board Meeting in Calantas.

Termination and Probation of Scholarship Program Per Art. 3, s4 of the CYDFI Handbook.

- Voluntary Termination. A Scholar has the right to withdraw from the Scholarship by writing to the CEO and Executive Committee shall conduct a HEARING to determine of WHY a "voluntary termination" is being sought and find ways on how to save it.
- Involuntary Termination. A Scholar (Phases 1 or 2) will be terminated from the Scholarship if both Sections of Art. 3, ss2.1a and ss2.1b of the CYDFI Handbook are violated, and if either section violated is a year probation. (2) A Scholar will be placed for one year probation if s/he violates two (2) of the last four (4) sections of Art.3, ss2.1c, ss2.1d, ss2.1e and ss2.1f of the CYDFI Handbook.

I, together with my parents/guardian, do understand the Mission of CYDFI and promise to abide by its Principles and Procedures as reflected in this Contract for my guidance to become successful in my career and failure to comply with the responsibilities articulated in the CYDFI Handbook per Article 3, s2 shall subject me against Article 3, s4 for involuntary termination. So, help me God!

Print Full Name of CYDFI Youth Scholar _____ DOB: _____	Name/Signature of Parent/Guardian _____ Date: _____	Chrisanta deAusen-Mangalindan President/CEO of CYDFI _____ Date: _____
Youth/Sign: _____ Phase1/Date: _____	Youth/Sign: _____ Phase2/Date: _____	Youth/Sign: _____ Phase3/Date: _____
Noted By: _____ Chairman of the Board Date: _____	Approved By: Antonio M. Mendoza, Ph.D. & Rita Nabong-Mendoza, RN CYDFI Founders Date: _____ rev. SY: 2007-2008	